

A Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) to establish a PM MITRA Park in the village of Bhensola in the Badnawar sub-district (tehsil) of the Dhar district will be signed by the Indian Textiles Ministry and the Madhya Pradesh government.

Prime Minister Mega Integrated Textile Region and Apparel is known as PM MITRA. In March of this year, the ministry authorised the plan to establish this park.

Piyush Goyal, the minister of textiles, Shivraj Singh Chouhan, the state chief minister, and Darshana Vikram Jardosh, the minister of state for textiles and railways, will all be present. According to a formal announcement, the event is expected to draw over 150 investors from all over India.

Goyal also holds the portfolios of commerce & industry, consumer affairs and food & public distribution.
