

Stalin to inaugurate 1,000-bed Kalaignar multi-super specialty hospital in Chennai | 1

The 1,000-bed Kalaignar multi-super specialty hospital, located on the grounds of the King Institute of Preventive Medicine and Research at Guindy in Chennai, will be opened by Tamil Nadu Chief Minister MK Stalin.

On June 15, the 230-crore hospital's inauguration will take place.

The Alandur Main Road in close proximity to the hospital will be temporarily closed for 4 days as part of the Kalaignar Centenary Super Speciality Hospital's opening ceremony, according to the Greater Chennai Traffic Police.

On Guindy-Alandur Road, the following traffic diversion must be in place from June 13 to June 16.
