

The Telangana state government is striving to build a Mini Textile Park at Kodakandla in the Palakurthi seat, according to Errabelli Dayakar Rao, minister for Panchayat Raj and Rural Development.

The minister instructed them to design the micro textile park along the lines of the one that already exists in Sircilla at a meeting with top officials at the Secretariat in Hyderabad.

The Minister pointed out that there's a huge number of weaving community in and around Kodakandla and they have been migrating to Bhivandi, Surat and Mumbai which have a plethora of textile units.

"I have taken the issue to the notice of Chief Minister K Chandrasekhar o and the MA&UD Minister K T Rama Rao, who in turn agreed to establish a mini textile park at Kodakandla; thereby to stop these migrations," he said.

He added that they have received all the clearances besides acquiring land for grounding the unit.
